

Attention: Teens,

Parents, teachers, lawmakers, law enforcers
& community members who care

“What makes underage drinking a crime?”
Should it be? Want to talk about it?

You're invited to a

Town Meeting - Eskimo Style

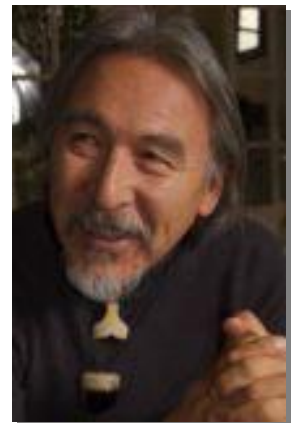

When: Tuesday, September 2, 2008, 3 – 5 pm

Pizza will be served at 2:45

Where: Montpelier High School Cafeteria

The highly entertaining and wise Angaangaq will share his stories and show us a way to solve community problems in which everyone speaks and is listened to equally – where all people and ideas are respected. See www.meltingiceinvt.com for more information about Angaangaq and this and his other Montpelier events.

Come be inspired to work together to reduce the tension between teens and police about underage drinking.

Angaangaq, an Eskimo Elder for the Aboriginal Justice Learning Network, Justice Canada and Elder Advisor to the board of directors of the Canadian Institute for Conflict Resolution.
